

Moral Armor's Non-Commercial Audio/Video Taping Agreement

Many clients elect to record presentations on audio or video tape. We encourage you to do this, as being tailored to your group, they can be a valuable resource for the organization.

Client: _____

Date of Program: _____

Ronald E. Springer hereby grants to the client a non-exclusive, nontransferable, nonsublicensable license and right to make an [] audio and/or [] video recording of Mr. Springer's presentation at the above-identified program and retain a copy of the recorded presentation for the purpose of archival records only.

Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that Mr. Springer shall be and is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the Presentation, the Presentation Material and the Master Recording, including the copyright.

Client agrees to send one (1) copy of the Master Recording and one (1) review copy to Mr. Springer no less than fourteen (14) days after the program date. Please mail to Ronald E. Springer, 27625 Ponchartrain, Harrison Twp, MI, 48045.

Client shall not produce any additional copies of the archive audio/video tape without prior written permission from Mr. Springer. Client fully understands that this will involve an additional agreement.

Any unauthorized recording of Mr. Springer is a violation of our written or spoken agreement, as the presentation contains material that is protected by both copyright and trademark. Any recording requires this license. Any recording, reproduction or distribution of any part of Mr. Springer's presentation shall be prima facie evidence of your acceptance of the terms of this license agreement.

In the event it is necessary for Mr. Springer to enforce the terms and conditions of this agreement, the prevailing party shall be awarded its reasonable attorney fees, costs and expenses for such action.

In witness thereof, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be executed by a duly authorized representative as of the date written below:
